USPA NEWS - Enrique Peña Nieto, was the guest of honour on July 14th at the French national party, & stayed in France for a State visit of 4 days. It was the 1st state visit of a Mexican President in France for 18 years, thus confirming closer relations between the two countries, further Hollande's invitation.

PARIS AND MEXICO STRENGTHENED TIES AFTER A LONG PERIOD OF COLD DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

This shift coincided with the military parade of 14 July where Mexico was is honored with the presence of 156 soldiers of the different corps of his army and his police, who opened the parade with their mascots, three falcons and three eagles.

"It's also the first time a state visit is organized at the national festival, explained the French Presidency.-----

This state visit in style, helped to restore the rather cold relationship between the two countries since the case of Florence Break, under the presidency of Nicolas Sarkozy. (She was arrested in 2005 and released in 2013, suspected of being an accomplice in a kidnapping case. Following the intervention of the French President Sarkozy, to release her.).

The French welcome was warm and prestigious, after all, allowed to please the President Enrique Pena Nieto and lived up his expectations. So that, after the meeting of the two heads of state, including an official diner at Elysee Palace and the rest of his visit to Marseille and industrial sites, have resulted the signature of twenty bilateral agreements, up to EUR 8 million, since then.

Peña Nieto will move including Marignane Wednesday to visit the Airbus plant Helicopters where it should announce the purchase of several military Super Puma helicopters. Other agreements in the field of energy could also be created while Mexico is preparing to partially privatize its oil sector, state property since 1938, following a historic reform.
